PRESIDES AT THE SESSION

Indiana's Golden Jubilee Aims Are Outlined by Women Speakers at
Afternoon Session

Officers were elected for the year and Marion was selected as the meeting place for the 1925 convention, at the business session this morning at the eighty-fifth annual meeting of Ind. Christian churches, at the Main Street Christian church.

This afternoon's program was devoted to the activities of the Indiana Women's Christian Missionary society, with Mrs. J. D. Case of this city, the state president, as the presiding officer. Mrs. Case was re-elected president for the seventh successive year, at this afternoon's session.

The morning program, after the convention business was transacted, was taken up with a discussion of the Disciples' educational program, featured by an address by H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Neb.

The Rev. Ray H. Montgomery of Martinsville was elected president and the Rev. Le Roy Sargent of Washington was chosen for vice-president. The Rev. Lynn A. Tripp of Greenfield was the convention choice for secretary-treasurer.

Five members of the board of fifteen directors of the Indiana Christian Missionary Association were re-elected for three year terms. They were R. C. Dillman, of Swazee; J. S. Hassey, of Zionsville; H. H. Parkhurst, of Mitchell; Harry Lett, of Greensburg; and John S. Zehn, of Bedford. The Rev. J. A. Long, of North Park Christian church, Indianapolis, was elected to succeed the Rev. Frank E. Davidson, resigned; and the Rev. W. E. Moore, of Marion, to succeed W. T. Barbre, of Remsclaer resigned.

Other members of the board are the Rev. W. H. Book, of Columbus; and Rev. O. E. Kelley, of Terre Haute, president; M. G. Long, of Laporte; U. C. Stover, of Indianapolis; H. G. Connelly, of New Albany; W. E. Carroll, of Tipton; E. W. Cole, of South Bend; and W. E. M. Hackleman, of Indianapolis.

DR. HALLEY TO HOLD UNION PRAYER MEETING

Bible Reader Consents to Remain
Over Thursday Night Following
Close of Convention

TO BE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. H. H. Halley of Chicago, noted for his memorizing of the Bible, who has been conducting the devotional exercises at the state convention of Christian churches, in session at the Main Street Christian church, has consented to remain in Rushville over Thursday night and conduct a union prayer meeting at the Christian church.

The Rev. L. E. Brown invited Dr. Halley to remain and asked the other churches of the city to join in the union prayer service, at which Dr. Halley will speak and read some passages from the Bible from memory.

Dr. Halley's talent and his remarkable personality was not new to Rush county people, but his marvelous knowledge of the Bible and his unusual talent has been one of the chief topics of conversation among the delegates and visitors at the convention. He gives to the scriptures a meaning seldom seen in a simple recital of the Bible truths and inspires a reverence for the Bible that few speakers have ever been able to equal.

WANTS RELIGION PUT IN EDUCATION

H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Neb., Tells Disciples Convention of
Greatest Task Ahead

TALKS AT MORNING SESSION

Emphasized Grave Need of Religious Departments in Educational Institutions

"The greatest task of the Disciples of Christ today is to undergird our educational institutions with the religion of Jesus Christ," stated the Rev. H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Neb., in a powerful address this morning on "The Church and Education," before the Indiana convention of Christian churches.

The Rev. Mr. Harmon was one of the most masterful and convincing talkers of the entire program and placed grave emphasis upon the needs of the educational institutions for religious departments and the needs of young people that they should go to religious school.

He described the physical fact that the same brain cells used for educational response are the ones that absorb the religious training. "The men who leave the ministry invariably go into real estate, life insurance, or some line of work where their same brain cells are used, those that use the persuasive power," he said. "So it is with young people. Hand in hand with their academic work goes their religious training. At the same ages they respond to education do they respond to religion. For this reason, religion must be scientific and science must be religious. Religion can not be imposed from the outside. Nowadays children are obsessed with the idea that going to school is their main business. It formerly was not that way, but we had the advantage of going to revival and religious meetings more than the

COMMANDERY WINS FIRST IN INSPECTION

Rushville Knights Templar Leads
With Percentage of 95.8, Announced at Fort Wayne

GRAND COMMANDERY MEETS

For the first time in its history, Rushville commandery No. 40, Knights Templar, won first place in the state inspection according to word received here today from Fort Wayne, where the annual meeting of the grand commandery is being held. A delegation of Rushville Knights headed by Judge Will M. Sparks, who will be advanced this year from grand captain general to grand generalissimo, is attending the meeting.

Rushville was ranked first with a percentage of 95.8, beating Richmond, which finished second, three-tenths of one per cent according to the announcement made Tuesday night by the grand commandery.

The biennial inspection of Rushville commandery was held December 27, 1923. In 1921 Rushville commandery finished in sixth place with a percentage of only 1.6 per cent below first place and in 1919 was ranked sixth, having been only 1.7 per cent below first place that year. Rushville commandery is preparing for a celebration over the victory when the delegation returns from the grand commandery meeting.

PAGEANT SHOWS WORLD BATTLE

Depicts Christianity Winning Over
Other Forces at Auction Sale of World's Children

FEATURE AT CONVENTION

Indianapolis Pastor Says one of Disciples Tasks is Keeping The Fron-
tiers Open

An impressive pageant entitled "The Sale of the World's Children", and an address, "The Immediate Task of the Disciples", marked the Tuesday evening session of the Indiana convention of Christian churches, at the Main Street Christian church, which was filled to capacity. Every inch of available space was used for standing room and many people were unable to gain admission.

The Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, pastor of the Sixth Christian church of Indianapolis, made an impassioned appeal for conviction on the part of the ministers of the Disciples, to keep the frontiers open and for the recruiting of ministers so that God's work may be carried on. He spoke in place of the Rev. P. H. Welshimer of Canton, O., who was unable to fill the engagement.

The pageant, which was arranged by Miss Florence Carmichael and Miss Genevieve Harris of Indianapolis, young peoples' workers in the state department, depicted the battle that is going on among the world forces for the children. The pageant shows Christianity eventually winning out. The world forces were represented by students preparing for the work of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Smith said that he could see success ahead for the Disciples because the wing representing ten percent of the church body will "never succeed in swaying us with their radicalism", and the conservative wing, representing about an equal number, will not be able to "swamp us with their conservatism."

One of the immediate tasks of the Disciples, the speaker asserted, is "go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." "This is a commission that is so much abused and misused," he continued. "Some people construe it to mean, 'Go ye into all the world and debate the Gospel with every creature. He that is beaten and baptized shall be damned.'"

"The Immediate Task", the Rev. Mr. Smith declared "is to turn the flood light on the teachings of Jesus"

WORKERS MEET AT LUNCHEON

Young People's Work Also Discussed
at Banquet Tuesday Night

A luncheon was held today at the First Baptist church for the elementary workers of the Sunday Schools. An interesting program was held during the service of the luncheon.

One of the most important features of young people's work during the convention was held at the First Presbyterian church last night when a program of plans for the future was given during the service of the banquet. Miss Genevieve Harris, regional superintendent of Sunday schools, was toastmistress, and the following toasts were given: "Training in Endeavor" by Miss Virginia Wood of Indianapolis and "Training in Sunday School" by Miss Louise Dingle of Newcastle. Two beautiful numbers were sung by the Connersville Intermediate choir.

Hundred and Four Automobiles Carry Disciples to Last Resting Place of Early Churchmen

The automobile trip to the graves of Knowles Shaw in East-Hill Cemetery and John B. Thompson in the cemetery near the Little Flatrock church was one of the most interesting parts of the state Christian church convention here. The procession of one hundred and four automobiles left the church about four o'clock, taking practically all of the visitors and a number of local people to these historic spots.

The unusual character and career of Knowles Shaw was told in a short talk by the Rev. L. E. Brown at the memorial service held at his grave. "A diamond in the rough" was the term applied to him by the speaker, who referred to his work as a minister, singing evangelist and song writer of note. Many of his songs are being sung today. A picture of the church in Harris, Ohio founded by Evangelist Shaw of which the local minister was pastor thirty years ago was shown.

The talk was preceded by a song, "Bringing in the Sheaves", which was

13 SENIORS WILL GRADUATE FRIDAY

Carthage School Will be Last Township High School to Hold Exercises This Year

8TH GRADE PUPILS NEXT

Three Townships Will Hold Exercises
For Elementary Graduates—Examination Saturday

Carthage will graduate thirteen seniors Friday night at the auditorium in that place, and the address will be delivered by Oswald Ryan, an attorney of Anderson. This will end the commencements for the township high schools, as all of the schools are over excepting Rushville City.

In addition to the Friday night commencement there will follow three township commencements for eighth grade pupils, in Union, Jackson and Richland townships, where there is no commissioned high school.

The pupils who failed to pass the eighth grade tests in the schools, will be given another opportunity to make the grades, it was announced today, and the examination for those who failed will be held on the third floor of the court house here Saturday, beginning at eight o'clock in the morning.

It has always been the custom to give the eighth grade pupils a second chance to pass, and B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent designated Saturday as the time for the examination.

The thirteen pupils who will receive diplomas at Carthage Friday night will be: Gilbert Glover, Mary Elizabeth Gray, Charles Hahn, Marjorie Henley, Josephine Herkless, Harold Hill, Ival Johnson, Harold Maey, Earl Moore, Raymond McDuffey, Fred Parrish, Leslie Terhune and Raymond Kennedy.

The eighth grade commencement dates for the three township schools will be May 28 at Jackson township; May 29 for Union township and June 3 for the Richland school.

The Jackson township commencement will be the first in their newly completed building, and the class roll consists of eleven students, who will be eligible to enter high school next fall. The address and program will be held at the new school May 28th at eight o'clock, and the address will be delivered by the Rev. C. F. Shaul of Arlington. Downey's orchestra will also provide the music.

The eleven students are: Gilbert Barrow, Geneva Benson, Winfred

STOLE WRENCHES AND IS SENT TO PENAL FARM

Harold L. Wharton, 22, Sign Painter, Pleads Guilty to Charge of Grand Larceny

ALSO FINED $25 AND COSTS

Howard L. Wharton, age 22, who says he lives in Indianapolis, and who has been employed here as a sign painter, was arrested last Tuesday on a charge of larceny, and admitted his guilt when arraigned this morning in police court, before Mayor Thomas.

He was fined $25 and costs, and given a 30 day penal farm sentence, and being unable to pay the fine, it means a 55 day sentence.

According to the affidavit, filed by Walter M. Pearce, he stole a set of universal wrenches from the Innis, Pearce and Company factory, where he was employed in lettering trucks. The wrenches were valued at $22, the charge said. The prisoner told the officers, after his arrest, where the tools could be located.

CAMPAIGN FOR WHEAT POOL ON

Canvass For Singers Directed in County By W. T. Martindale,
Farm Bureau Director

20 UNION FARMERS SIGN UP

W. H. Settle, President of State Bureau, to Address Rushville Meeting
in Interest of Drive

A campaign to sign farmers in the wheat pool got under way in Rush county Tuesday and today four outside workers were making a farm-to-farm canvass in an effort to obtain the support of Rush county farmers in the movement to sign up forty per cent of the wheat acreage of Indiana by May 24.

W. T. Martindale of Greenfield, district director of the Indiana Farm Bureau, who is directing the campaign in Rush county, announced that a meeting for farmers of the county, in the interest of the wheat pool, would be held at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The principal address will be delivered by W. H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau, who is known as a very gifted speaker.

Mr. Martindale announced that two Union township farmers signed up for the wheat pool Tuesday and the campaign was to be continued in this township today by John Ritter of Elmore, Ind., and Rene Jones of Fairmount, Ind.

Oris Little of Hancock county came today to assist Mr. Martindale in the local campaign and he was to be assigned to Center township. The canvassers are endeavoring to find a local farmer to accompany them, but they find this very difficult on account of the busy season on the farm.

Union township farmers who signed up Tuesday are as follows: J. E. Winn, D. V. Whicker, Emery Vandevanter, Urban Vickery, J. W. Peters, H. M. Nash, Eddie Meyer, W. B. Morris, Otto Morris, John W. Maury, Charles G. Maury, James W. Maury, Fred McCrory, Thomas Logan, Walter Gray, Elbert Gordon, Chester Beaver, Jesse Brooks, Guy Bussel and Fred Hall.

CLYDE WALB IS RE-ELECTED

Rush County Proxy Storm Center of
Sixth District Meeting, Committee
Refusing to Accept It

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14—The Republican state committee today voted to seat George Elliott of Newcastle as chairman of the sixth district organization over Harry Haynes of Richmond.

The vote was reported to be 10 to 2 in favor of seating Elliott.

The district chairman re-elected Clyde Walb of Lagrange as state chairman and Frederick Schortemeier of Indianapolis as secretary of the state committee.

Walb, state chairman, instructed the district chairman to proceed with the selection of a chairman for the sixth district after two hours deliberation behind closed doors over the situation growing out of Tuesday's district convention at Newcastle.

Harry Haynes of Richmond was selected chairman by the convention after it had refused to accept the vote of a proxy for the Rush county chairman.

Friends of Elliott claimed the vote would have been a tie if the Rush county proxy had been permitted to vote and appealed to the state committee.

Walb held that it was an error to attempt to exclude the proxy holder from the meeting at Newcastle and declared that a tie vote had existed for twenty-four hours over the election.

Repeating the fight of two years ago, the sixth congressional district again became the battle ground of the Indiana republican organization when county chairmen of the district met at Newcastle Tuesday afternoon to elect a district chairman.

The fight centered on the Rush county representation at the meeting and was carried to the state committee, which met this afternoon in Indianapolis to elect a state chairman. The district committee contested the right of Charles A. Frazee to represent Glen Miller, republican county chairman, who was unexpectedly called to Shelbyville, and delegated Mr. Frazee to act for him.

The question of Mr. Frazee's right to vote for Mr. Miller was raised because his proxy was not sworn to before a notary public. The committee

FORMER RUSHVILLE COLORED MAN KILLED

Matthew Easley, 40, Struck by Bolt
of Lightning Tuesday Afternoon
at Home in Marion

BODY TO BE BROUGHT HERE

Matthew Easley, (colored) 40 years old, of Marion, Ind., and formerly of this city, was instantly killed Tuesday, afternoon by a bolt of lightning, while at work in a barn at his home in South Marion. He was the son of George Easley of this city, who with his two sons, Orville E. Easley and George Easley, Jr., have gone to that city to bring the body back to this city for burial.

The bolt, which entered at an open door, struck Easley on the head. Miss Lula May Dye, a girl who was talking to him at the time, was uninjured. The deceased was well known here, having lived here most of his life, until a few years ago he moved to Marion with his family.

The survivors are the father and two brothers of this city, one brother of Connersville, G. Easley, and four children, George, Martha, Lucile and Irene, all at home. His wife preceded him in death about a year ago. No arrangements have been made for the funeral services, awaiting the arrival of the body in this city. The body should arrive some time today and will be taken to the home of George Easley, Jr., where the funeral services will be held.

BIBLE THOUGHT
 —FOR TODAY—
 Bible thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

The golden rule:—Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.
 Matthew 7:12.
 Prayer:—Help us, our Father,
 to do right by thee, and then it,
 will be natural for us to do right
 by our brothers.

Profit by Contact

Many more local people are attending the annual convention of the Christian churches of Indiana, it is understood, than has been the rule in the past. A large number of Rushville people and many from other parts of the county are found at every session of the convention, which is being held at the Main Street
 Christian church.

This shows good judgment on the part of those who are taking advantage of the opportunity to hear some of the leading ministers of the Disciples of Christ. They can undoubtedly profit by being present at as many sessions as possible and hear what the trend of thought is in religious circles.

The spirituality that prevails at a convention of this character is wholesome and has such a refining influence that it is little wonder that people are attracted by it.

Good fellowship and hospitality fairly saturates the air and makes attendance at the sessions a very great pleasure.

While we of Rush county had hoped to impress the visitors with the good qualities which we as a community possess, we must not forget that the people who are attending this convention have many good qualities and that they will "rub off"
 if the proper contact is established.

No one should underestimate the good that may be derived from associating with the people who are accepting our hospitality this week.
 The people of this community can profit immensely if they will not only attend the convention sessions, but likewise get acquainted with those who are our guests.

An Old Man's Game

Chauncey Depew, celebrating his ninetieth birthday, says he is going to take up golf when he is 100 years old, because it is "an old man's game."

This may not be exactly fair to golf, but it is characteristic of Mr.
 Depew. The persistent youthfulness of this elderly gentleman is a subject of perpetual interest. Few men of our time have grown old so gracefully, refusing to admit that they were old even when past the psalmist's limit for the days of a man's life. And with every recurrent birthday, the venerable New Yorker's admirers want to know again how he does it.

Mr. Depew knows better than to lay down any absolute rule for a hearty old age. He knows that, to a

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
 NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—All semblance of administration control over Congress has gone by the board.

Against the most resolute opposition of administration leaders on the floor, and in the face of a virtual demand by President Coolidge that the Mellon tax bill be enacted as written, the Senate threw out the Mellon rates on surtaxes and substituted Democratic rates proposed by Simmons of North Carolina.

On the same afternoon, the House, invoking the new rule passed under insurgent pressure at the opening of the session, discharged the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee from further consideration of an important amendment to the Transportation Act and ordered it to the floor for consideration.

Just one day later, in the Senate, administration forces which had blocked employment of Francis J.
 Heney to assist the Couzens committee in an investigation of the Treasury Department, particularly the revenue bureau, which collects taxes and administers prohibition, were routed and the way cleared for what may be the most sensational of all the sensational inquiries of the year.

Party lines were hopelessly scrambled in this fight, which resulted in an authorization for employment of outside counsel.

Since it was the proposal to employ outside counsel that drew a heated protest from Mellon to Coolidge and a caustic letter of criticism of the Senate from the president, this action can be construed only as the Senate's declaration of independence from White House and cabinet domination.

THE new tax bill, as put through the Senate, might properly be labeled The Mellon Bill, per Simmons.
 Administration Republicans, however, from the wry face with which they view the legislation, apparently regard it chiefly as Persimmons.

 For certainly it is a bitter dose.

Incidentally, the enactment of the higher surtax rates proposed by Senator Furnifold McLendel
 Simmons, A. B., LL. D., of New Bern, N. C., brings into prominence again the dean of the Democratic party in the Senate.

Simmons, who is just past 70, rounds out this session four full terms in the upper house—24 years. His runner-up for continuity of service on the Democratic side is his North Carolina colleague, Lee Slater Overman, who also has just turned 70. Overman, however, has only 22 years to his credit.

Physically, Simmons is the senatorial Lilliputian. He stands barely over five feet in height. When seated, he is almost lost to sight behind his desk, and when standing he measures up in height to the average senator when seated.

But what he lacks in bodily physique, he makes up in cranial capacity. In contrast to his body, his head seems unduly large. And it houses an assortment of financial facts and figures not exceeded in the Senate unless it be those under the hat of Reed Smoot.

During the period of Democratic control in Congress, from 1913 to 1919, Simmons was chairman of the Senate finance committee and in charge of the formulation, in the Senate, of all war revenue measures.

INTEREST here now centers in what "Cautious Cal" will do when the tax bill, providing for surtax rates bitterly opposed by Mellon and objected to by Coolidge, reaches the White House.

If he vetoes it, there will be no tax reduction from this session of Congress; none that will apply to this year's taxes. That might be a big factor in the coming campaign.

If he signs it, it will be as a temporary bill to run until, if elected,
 he can propose another.

The dollars that run the government also run the taxpayers.

The high school students were dismissed this afternoon on account of the meeting of the State High School Oratorical Association in Noblesville. Rushville will be represented by Ward Hackleman.

Mrs. Owen Kincaid and Miss Minnie Burt went to Cincinnati today to attend the May Day celebration at the Thane Miller school and will be the guest of Miss Louise Burt, a senior of the school.

A sequel to the Billy Whitla kidnapping case was promised last night, when Wilbur, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snodgrass disappeared and could not be found.
 The young lad was not seen after dinner and when he did not come home to supper his parents were worried about his safety and immediately instituted a search for him.
 All during the evening performance
 they looked all over the show grounds. Shortly before the show was finished the mother went home and there found her son. He said he had been home once and finding no one at home had returned to the show grounds and then back home.

Mrs. Lon Johnson of Indianapolis, accompanied by her niece, Miss Henrietta Cox of Martinsville, came this afternoon to spend a fortnight with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Lively, in East Eighth street.

Prof. and Mrs. M. R. McDaniel will go to Chicago June 1st where Mr. McDaniel will take a summer course in Chicago University.

"The Near Lady" Mystic

Parental whims do not mean much to the youth of today, according to a few of the wisecracks who were educated to the rules of a generation or so ago, as is depicted in "The Near Lady", a Universal attraction starting Gladys Walton, which comes today to the Mystic theatre.

Youth today is rash, impulsive and self-centered, giving little thought to others than itself; the "honor thy father and mother", idea is a forgotten art, many old timers aver.

Whether their opinions are based on careful observance of the present generation or whether they have neglected to keep pace with the times is a matter of conjecture. At least those who voice such ideas speak freely, emphatically, as a matter of fact.

Consciously or unconsciously the Universal Pictures Corporation has released a film that is a strong negative answer to the expressions that the dads and mothers of today have no place in the thoughts of their children.

It is a screen version of the popular magazine story by Frank R. Adams and presents the story of a young couple who did not even like to be engaged to please their parents, whose motives for wishing the marriage of their children were extremely selfish.

The picture was directed by Herbert Blache, who also directed Miss Walton in "The Untameable" and the "Wild Party"

Zev Jeered as He Fails

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York May 14—When the great fall, they usually make a great fall out of it. That venerable and ancient wheeze that the bigger they are the harder they fall goes along picking up examples as convincing as they were when it was first observed that no matter how good you are, you'll fall if you stick at it long enough.

The greats of sports fall with such reverberating thuds because, there are so many waiting to see the crash and there are so many voices ready to shout in glee: "There he goes! He always was a bum!"

Pete Whosis, an obscure rookie, can strike out with the winning run on third base without having it bulletined to the far corners, but let Babe Ruth fail to deliver in a pinch and it is preserved for the next generation.

The same spirit that prompted the baseball fan to shout: "Yuh big bum" when the Babe fanned with the bases filled in the ninth inning of the last world's series game and the same fickleness that inspired the Dempsey rooters to roar: "Look at 'im going"

when big Firpo had him almost out last summer, exists around the big tracks where equine kings are treated to the same razberries.

Zev, Harry Sinclair's champion money-winner, was the hero of the track last year. He carried the flag in the international race against the British champion, Papyrus, and when he won he was acclaimed a national hero.

He was still a hero and the toast and boast of the track when he paraded down the Jamaica track for the Pomona Handicap, the first important race of the metropolitan season. His backers couldn't get a bet down on him because he was such a tremendous favorite. It was the boast of the Zev fans that the animal didn't walk on hoofs that could beat him in a sprint.

It was but a matter of a few seconds after the tape had sprung that it was shown that the animal did live that could beat him in a sprint. Seventy yards from the star Zev found a three year old, St. James, at his shoulder and the three year old kept going. Zev not only was beaten but he was humiliated. His kingdom crashed at his feet and he heard the ovation given to a new king. He had been dethroned and another was in his place.

PAGEANT SHOWS
WORLD BATTLE

Christ and to take up the seeds of truth dropped at the very gates of heaven and plant them in the hearts of men.

"We need men in the ministry with conviction. I don't believe in the old school emotion, the death-bed scene and altar-confession emotion. I mean the emotion that thrills a young man to act—the kind of emotion that stirs a man to dash into a burning home and save the life of a child."

The speaker asserted that there were thousands outside the church of God because they thought those in church did not care.

"The man who walks with God is always in pain seeing the man who walks outside of God," he stated. "We need to put the passion of conviction in the hearts of our ministers so that they will go out and win souls."

The second immediate task he outlined was keeping the frontiers open—extend the work of the church, and in doing this, he said, the Disciples need a "body sense."

"Segregate us," Mr. Smith said, "and we are left a piece of fossilized junk. Put us together and you have, not a machine, but a body, because a body has a heart. We need a body sense because when one part is hurt, another part is pained."

"The thing that has kept us alive and together is that we have always had a frontier—we have always had churches to organize. I love the spirit of the pioneer, who has worked on the American frontier as well as the foreign frontier."

The pastor emphasized the need of new ministers, calling attention to the fact that many men were not in the ministry because they thought it was a "she" job, a sort of a "mother's apron string."

"Never were men so willing to accept the Christ," he continued. "The ministry is a job for red-blooded men to go out and win them."

He asserted that the church that had never sent out a minister didn't deserve any.

Miss Carmichael explained the purpose of the pageant and publicly thanked the students who gave their time and paid their own expenses to Rushville in order to take part in it. She also expressed appreciation for the assistance of local workers—Miss Wanda Wyatt, Miss Flint, Mrs. Overdorf and Miss Florine Gronier, who trained the Rushville children appearing in the pageant, representing the children of the world who were put on the auction block.

The first bidder for the children of the world was pleasure. She presented her claims for them and just as they were about to be "knocked off" to her, Vanity Fair made her offer. Each succeeding one of the world's forces made a strong bid—Child Labor, Ambition, Free Thinker, Riches, Graft, Crime, Alcohol, Law and finally Christianity, though not notified of the sale, appeared and made her bid. Opposing forces, headed by Alcohol, endeavored to sway the auctioneer, but Doctor, Nurse, School Teacher, Student, Business Man and Labor went to the side of Christianity, and she was awarded the children as the "high bidder."

MRS. JAMES MARTIN
DIED HERE TUESDAY

Native of Richland Township Expires
Following Long Illness—Lived Here 5 Years

FUNERAL FRIDAY MORNING

Mrs. Mary Martin, wife of James Martin died Tuesday afternoon about 2:15 o'clock, at the family home, 340 West Third Street, death resulting from a complication of diseases of which she had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Martin was born in this county, and had lived here all of her life, and was 75 years of age. The greatest portion of her life was spent on a farm in Richland township, but they had moved to this city about five years ago for residence.

Besides the husband, she is survived by a step-son, Edgar Martin of south of Rushville and a brother, L. D. Lefforge of Greenfield.

Funeral services for the deceased will be held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the late residence in charge of the Rev. H. W. Hargett, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

BILLS GOES TO FORT WAYNE

Former Rush County Boy to Take Charge of Athletics

Mark Bills, son of Fred Bills of Washington township, who has been coaching at Noblesville, has accepted a position with the Central high school at Ft. Wayne, where he will have charge in the athletics of that school next year. Bills is a graduate of DePauw, where he starred in basketball, and other sports.

Murray Mendenhall, coach of the Newcastle high school, and also a DePauw star who played with Bills, has accepted a position at the same school, and the two DePauw stars expect to turn out a winner next year at Ft. Wayne in all branches of sport. So far Newcastle and Noblesville have not announced their successors.

LANGLEY SENTENCED

Covington, Ky., May 14—Congressman John W. Langley was sentenced to serve two years in Atlanta Federal penitentiary Tuesday in court here on charges of violating the liquor laws on which he was convicted. Motion for a new trial was denied. Others convicted with him were also given two years each.

W. J. REEVES FUNERAL

Funeral services for William J. Reeves, Center township farmer who died, suddenly Tuesday, of heart trouble will be held at the Center Christian church Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and burial will be made in the Center cemetery.

Vital Facts For Women

Sooner or later almost every woman is brought face to face with the fact that she is a victim of some weakness or ailment peculiar to her sex. It may be the young woman suffering from pain or irregularities, a mother who has brought on some weakness or displacement from overwork, or the middle aged woman passing through the most critical period of her life. For each of these trying periods Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved the greatest boon ever given to women, and there are women living in every town and city in the country who testify to its value.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Friday afternoon in the assembly room of the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Trusty, Miss Lavina Rolling and Miss Ruby Mapor of Arcadia, Ind., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Overdorf of North Harrison street this week.

The Sorosis Club of Glenwood was charmingly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Dickey near Fairview. A majority of the members were present and responded to the roll call with current events. An interesting paper on "Cuba" was given by Mrs. Hugh Dickey, which was followed by a very interesting and vivid talk by Mrs. Jacob Gross, a guest of the club, on her recent trip to Havana, Cuba. The club members were very much delighted with the talk. The program closed with a paper on "The Sugar Industry," by Miss Meriam Fry. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served and music enjoyed. Other guests of the club were Mrs. Homer Powell of Bentonville and Mrs. James Dickey.

A very pretty and impressive wedding took place at the St. Mary's Catholic church, when Miss Mary Ellen Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Carroll, became the bride of William Michaels, of Connersville. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with bouquets of spring flowers.

At the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the church, composing the party were Miss Helen Carroll, cousin of the bride, and Ray Michaels, brother of the bridegroom, who were the attendants, and then the bride entered on the arm of the bridegroom. The bride looked lovely in a dark blue tailored suit with accessories to match. She wore a beautiful corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The bride's attendant also wore a dark blue suit and a corsage of sweet peas. During the ceremony, John Michaels, a brother of the bridegroom, sang "Ave Maria."

Immediately following the services at the church, a four course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, in West First street. The appointments for the breakfast table were carried out in pink and white and covers were laid for immediate family and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W.

E. Carroll and children Betty and Robert of Plymouth, Ind., Miss Helen Black, of Greencastle, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michaels, Ethel Michaels, John Michaels, Ray Michaels, Miss Mary Geerin, Ben Hemen, Mr. and Mrs. Will McQuiston, Miss Weldele, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Doll, Mrs. John Kubler, Mrs. Augusta Simms, Mrs. Lorena McKenna, and Mary Margaret McKenna, all of Connersville.

The bridal couple left following the breakfast on a wedding trip after which they will be at home to their friends, in their newly furnished home in Connersville. The bride is a popular young lady of this city, having been employed in the ladies ready-to-wear department of the Maunzy Company store for a number of years. Mr. Michaels is an accountant of Connersville.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS CONVENE AT ATLANTA

Atlanta, Ga., May 14—Approximately 7,500 delegates representing 17 southern states and the District of Columbia, today began the first session of the annual Southern Baptist Convention.

The convention, which is expected to last through next Saturday, bids fair to be one of the most important in the history of the Southern Baptist Church.

Aside from the election of a president made necessary by the resignation of Dr. E. Y. Mullins, of Louisville, Ky., now completing his third year in that capacity, many matters of importance will come up. Among them are:

1—Completion during 1924 of the $75,000,000 campaign for missions. The campaign which was started with the idea of gaining the goal in five years, has only until Dec. 31 to run. A balance of $26,500,000 is needed.

2—Authorization of a new forward program to be started as soon as the present fund is raised.

3—Closer correlation of agencies of the convention by reorganization of some of the boards.

4—Proposal to again take over the George Washington University in Washington for operation as a Baptist institution.

5—Proposal to take over the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas, as property of the convention.

CONVENTION NOTES

The Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Brock and son, William, of Newcastle are here, the Rev. Mr. Brock leading the singing with such success as to make the entire church ring. The Rev. Mr. Brock and his wife are singing evangelists and song writers. He has recently given up that line of work to become district evangelist of the eastern district to take the place of the Rev. Mr. Shultz who resigned.

The Rev. Aubrey H. Moore of Noblesville, here for the convention has just closed a series of meetings in Brownsburg at which 120 additions were made to the church in two weeks time.

Hilton U. Brown, publisher of the Indianapolis News, is among the prominent visitors here for the convention.

"So many people ask me if I know the whole Bible," stated H. H. Halley in his devotional service this morning, during which he gave a collection of scriptural readings on "What Jesus Said about Himself." "No, I do not know all of the Bible, but I know enough to give what I consider the main themes of the Bible. In answer to another question, I use the American Standard Revised Bible and have taken the liberty to use the modern forms of speech instead of 'thee' and 'thou.' I am not too of what church I am a minister. I am minister of none and don't do one thing but go around and recite the Bible to people who have the patience to listen to me."

The Rev. Allan B. Philpott of the Central Christian church of Indianapolis was one of the prominent figures at the convention today.

Thirty years service is the record of Mrs. W. O. Darnall, state treasurer of the C. W. B. M. "When I took over the books of the treasurer thirty years ago," stated Mrs. Darnall, "the income was $700 a year and now it is $9,000."

This marks the ninth year of service for Mrs. J. D. Case of this city in being elected state president for the seventh successive year of the C. W. B. M. Previous to that she served as vice-president and assistant secretary. She is one of the society's most capable and prominent workers.

Rushville has the distinction of having organized the first Young Women's Missionary Circle in the state. It is one of the most active organizations of the local church.

Mrs. E. W. Taylor of South Bend, recording secretary of the C. W. B. M., and Mrs. F. R. Liddell of Laporte, secretary of the Circles and Triangles, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Case during the convention.

Miss Mary Voorhees of Franklin is accompanying the singing at the piano and certainly makes the keys "talk."

The Rev. W. E. Moore of Marion presided over the convention this morning. The Rev. John McD. Horn elected presiding officer, left for his home in Lebanon this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Williams, Miss Ethel Bradford, Mrs. Charles Canady, Mrs. Will Corsant, Miss Marcia Barton, Mrs. Oscar Miller, Mrs. Fred Kragle, Mrs. Nannie Shoomaker, Miss Emma Barton, Miss Alma Knott, Dr. O. L. Hull Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Canady of Anderson were the guests of Mrs. L. E. Brown today while attending the convention.

representative on the nominating committee of the next national denomination convention, at Cleveland, the Rev. Mr. Carroll, and as its representatives on the resolutions committee of that convention Mrs. L. E. Brown, of Rushville; the Rev. Mr. Connelly, New Albany; Dr. A. B. Philpott, Indianapolis, Miss Margaret Winsor, of Muncie; the Rev. Mr. Cole, South Bend; and J. B. Leonard, Crawfordsville. The convention president was authorized to appoint alternates to represent the state in case of necessity.

At the session of the Indiana Women's Christian Missionary Society, officers for the coming year, in addition to Mrs. Case, were elected as follows:

Mrs. J. B. Pearsey, Indianapolis, vice president; Mrs. W. O. Darnall, Lebanon, treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Taylor, South Bend, recording secretary; Mrs. Lila B. Harrington, Lebanon, superintendent boys' and girls' work; Mrs. F. R. Liddell, Laporte, superintendent of girls' circle work; and Mrs. O. H. Griest, Winchester, general secretary.

Reports were made on the work of the Indiana Women's Society and on the progress of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary this year of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, which was the first organization for foreign missionary work established by the denomination. From its founding in 1874 until three years ago when the organization became a part of the United Christian Missionary Society, of St. Louis, its offices were in Indianapolis. The college of Missions was established by this organization.

As a part of the anniversary celebration the board hopes to raise in the denomination $1,000,000 for the construction of buildings needed in missionary work at home and abroad. Indiana's share of the financial goal is $100,000, of which about $60,000 already has been pledged and $21,000 paid. The climax of the celebration will come at the national convention of the denomination in Cleveland, in October, which will be known as the golden jubilee convention.

Plans of the board to increase its congregational organizations in the state by 100, its membership by 6,000, subscriptions to World Call, the denomination's missionary magazine, by 5,000 and its resources by $100,000 in recognition of the anniversary were discussed this afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Pearsey and Mrs. Ellie K. Payne of Indianapolis; Mrs. J. R. Coar of Ft. Wayne; Mrs. J. M. Stearns, of St. Louis; Harley T. Campbell, of Muncie; and W. S. Lockhart, of Huntington. Mrs. J. D. Case, of Rushville, will entertain women attending the convention at a golden jubilee tea at the close of the afternoon session. Women's missionary work will be considered further this evening in addresses by Miss Daisy June Trout and Stephen J. Corey, both of St. Louis, officials of the United Christian Missionary Society.

Persons interested in the annual summer assembly of the denomination at Bethany Park will attend a luncheon this evening. Charles M. Martz, of Tipton, president of the assembly, planned for coming summer, will preside.

Greetings were read in a telegram from the New York state convention being held at this time and an answer was sent to them.

Dr. Robert J. Ale, president Butler College, announced to convention in forenoon the appointment of Dr. Frederick Kershner, Des Moines, as dean of the college of religion of Butler, and said a campaign would be made among congregations of the Disciples of Christ in the state to raise about $200,000 for the construction of a building on the Fairview site in which the new department could be housed. J. W. Atherton financial secretary Butler College, and Hilton U. Brown, president of the board of directors, also spoke on the plans of the college. He emphasized the fact that the college of religion should be made one of the objects of loyal support of denomination in the state, just as business men of Indianapolis were giving their support to the proposed department of commerce in the greater Butler.

"The officials of Butler College want it to become the outstanding educational institution supported by the Disciples of Christ in the United States," Dr. Ale said. "The department of religion should become the central training school for preachers for the entire denomination."

Leaders of denomination in state here appear to be pleased with the appointment of Dr. Kershner as dean of the department of religion.

"The College couldn't have done better under any circumstances," the Rev. C. W. Cauble, secretary of the State Missionary Association, said.

"It is a most fortunate selection," the Rev. Mr. Kelley said. "The college is to be congratulated on getting Dr. Kershner," Dr. Philpott said. "He is a man of modern learning but conservative. He not only is trained in the Scriptures but is a generally literary scholar. He is humble. He is a winning speaker."

The work of other higher educational institutions of denomination in state was discussed by J. O. Rose, of Angola; and a group of students from Indiana University. The work of the School of Religion at Bloomington, of which Dr. Joseph C. Todd is dean, was explained by Miss Evelyn Wilkinson, Miss Vera Woods, Russell Siferd, William Treadway, and all students, and Mrs. Todd.

J. O. Rose, who has the Bible Chair at Angola College, gave a report on "The Bible Chair at Angola," stating that "our church must thrive according to the attention given to the religious education of our young people. Our future ministry depends upon it." He dwelt upon the amazing ignorance of the average college student in Bible facts, giving statistics to prove his points. "What they need is systematic teaching of the fundamentals of the Bible and not philosophy to start on. During my experience in teaching students from 34 states and 22 countries, I can not recall 6 of them that had systematic Bible teaching."

He also stated that there have been 200 ministers go out from this school and there are 700 students now enrolled, so the opportunity in the college is enormous.

J. C. Todd head of the college of religious education at Indiana university, was the next speaker and said "Sixteen times have I come to you and made speeches and this time I am going to surprise you and let some one else do the talking. He introduced four students of the college, who spoke on phases of the work, and Mrs. Todd. After their talks they sang one of the college songs. Mr. Todd has been head of the college of religion for ten years.

Miss Evelyn Wilson of Indiana university gave a short talk on the courses in the religious college there, saying the purpose of it all was to give the students an opportunity to express their religion.

William Treadway discussed the "Chapel" and told how it was the most popular phase of church life in the school. He stated that the founders of the state seemed to think that religion and education should be separated and the purpose of the school of religion was to fill the vacancy left there by the church.

Miss Woods, president of the Student Christian Union, stated the purpose of the organization was to put a positive moral spirit on the campus and an interest in religion. She named a number of religious movements the students were interested in, among them, the "Pocket Testament League", the joiners of which agreed to read at least one chapter of the Bible every day and carry a testament with them.

Russell Seford spoke on the possibilities of the religious school, stating there were more students of every denomination at the state school than there are at the denominational schools and a great opportunity is there. In closing he asked, "They say you get out of a thing what you put into it. What have you put into the colleges in a religious way?"

Mrs. Todd spoke of the great opportunity for the home and the increasing knowledge of its influence.

WANTS RELIGION PUT IN EDUCATION

children do now. Now by the time children get through with the modern school program there is no time for anything else. If we do not put religious training into the curriculum of our schools, it is going to be crowded out of the souls of our children.

"In my mind the two things responsible for the success of the Disciples of Christ are the plea for the unity of the church on the basis of the New Testament, and that great statesman of Israel, Alexander Campbell. Our future depends upon our leadership and this depends upon our colleges. Time was when ministers came from the plough, the anvil, or the carpenter shop. They had the sacrificial spirit of our fathers. To be successful now, however, the pulpit has to be as well educated and equipped as the pew. I do not plead for a highbrow ministry but our ministers must be trained for their task. There are more students of our denomination today in the state universities than in our own colleges. Much of our leadership is there for training. And why not, our doctors, engineers are trained there and until Christ rules in the markets of the world He will not rule the world."

"More than this there must be co-

GEORGE ELLIOTT NAMED CHAIRMAN

ice met at one o'clock, and when the question came up, adjourned until 2:30 to give Mr. Frazee opportunity to have the document sworn to.

Russell Titsworth, secretary of the Rush county committee, who made out the proxy and witnessed the signature, hurried to Newcastle and had it acknowledged before a notary public, but this did not satisfy the committee and it was thrown out, resulting in the election of Harry J. Haynes of Richmond a Goodrich-Bossert man, as district chairman, and the defeat of George A. Elliott, editor of the Newcastle Courier, and a candidate for re-election.

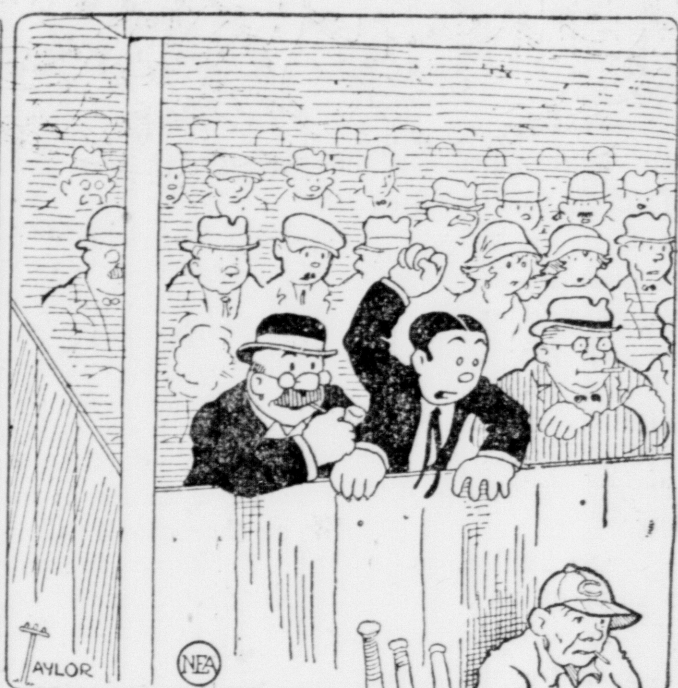

The committee to which the contest was referred consisted of Judge Himelick of Connersville, Judge Tague of Brookville and Judge Hinchshaw of Newcastle. The committee was two to one in favor of the Goodrich organization, Judge Hinchshaw being the only man on the special committee favorable to the Watson group.

Mr. Frazee and Mr. Miller went to Indianapolis this morning to carry a fight to the state committee, holding that the district committee defrauded Rush county out of representation in the election of a district chairman, on account of the intense desire of the anti-Watson forces to gain control of the state committee. Haynes was elected by a vote of 4 to 3, the same as prevailed when Frazee was rejected. It was said that the chairmen of Wayne, Fayette, Union and Franklin counties supported Haynes, while Henry Hancock and Shelby voted for Elliott.

Mrs. Helen K. French of Newcastle and Mrs. Bertha VanCamp of Brookville were named vice chairmen; Luther O. Draper Henry county chairman, was elected secretary and Dr. W. C. Squires of Richmond was named treasurer.

Republican leaders from over the district were in Newcastle for the meeting and D. C. Stephenson and Bossert took an active part in lining up the county chairmen for the two candidates. Stephenson is said to favor the re-election of Wall as state chairman. Bossert and Stephenson got into an argument over Klan affairs during a conference before the district meeting convened. Witnesses said hot words passed between the two and each took a couple of swings at the other before friends intervened. No damage resulted, but the near fight was the sensation of the meeting.

Stephenson is generally credited with keeping Otto Lee, the Shelby county chairman in line for Elliott, while Bossert and the Wayne county delegation swung Will Osborne of Franklin county, generally credited with being a supporter of Elliott, over to Haynes.

Haynes is a retired banker of Richmond and is ex-president of the Union National Bank.

written by Knowles Shaw, and followed by a prayer by the Rev. Homer Hufferd who formerly preached at Big Flatrock and knew the evangelist. The Rev. Mr. Brown then introduced George Thomas of this city, saying "This is the son of the man who baptized Knowles Shaw." Another of his songs, "The Handwriting on the Wall" was then sung by a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Brock of Newcastle, singing evangelists, Miss Sells and Mr. Clark, all of whom are visitors at the convention. Little William Brock, the four year old son of the evangelists, then placed a beautiful wreath on the tombstone of the pioneer preacher.

At the Little Flatrock church, the service was in charge of the Rev. W. R. Cady, minister of this historic little church. The several hundred visitors sang a few hymns led by J. F. Howe, singing evangelist, prayer was offered by the Rev. T. E. Cox, one of the oldest evangelists of the Disciples in point of service, in the state. The Rev. Gas Thompson of Buckeye, Indiana, a great nephew of Elder John P. Thompson, who organized the Little Flatrock church nearly 100 years ago, gave an interesting number of facts concerning his noted ancestor.

The Rev. J. N. Jessa, minister of the Christian church of Lafayette, referred in a most pleasing way to

WILL ROGERS GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT

Well Known Man Says Medicine "Rang Down Curtain" on Stomach Troubles

"Tanlac rang down the curtain on my troubles and brought me as good health as a man could ask for," is the characteristic statement of Will Rogers, 1708 Wisconsin St., Peoria, Ill., a stationary engineer at a popular Peoria theatre.

"Before taking Tanlac, so many ailments piled up on me it looked like 'good-night' to my old-time robust health. Stomach trouble, a lagging appetite, weakness, nervousness, dizziness, coated tongue, sleeplessness, and headache were causing me no end of suffering. Every bone in my body ached and I was right on the verge of a collapse.

"Tanlac took every ache and pain out of my system and gave me a thorough overhauling. I now have an appetite like a cowpuncher's, perfect digestion, and am 10 pounds heavier. In fact, I am eating, sleeping, and feeling fine and have a world of new energy. Tanlac is every bit as good as they say it is."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40-million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Lady Says She Suffered from a Burning Sensation, Headache, Dizziness, Until She Took Black-Draught.

Signal, Miss.—"For a year or longer I had indigestion, and had it bad," says Mrs. E. S. Holman, of this place. "Everything I ate hurt me. I would have burning in my stomach and smothering spells, and after meals feel right dizzy. My head would begin to ache, and I would want to lie down, but felt I couldn't for I would smother."

"Unless one has had such trouble, they don't know what it is. I was talking to a neighbor one day and told her how I had been affected. She told me it was indigestion and to try Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few large doses and then a pinch after meals, and for fully four months now I haven't had indigestion. I eat whatever I please and when I please, but keep up the Black-Draught—just an occasional dose."

When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, try the suggestion above. Thousands of people have found that Black-Draught promotes relief in indigestion by stimulating the liver and stomach to perform their normal functions.

PRESIDES AT THE SESSION

Indiana's Golden Jubilee Aims Are
Outlined by Women Speakers at
Afternoon Session

Officers were elected for the year and Marion was selected as the meeting place for the 1925 convention, at the business session this morning at the eighty-fifth annual meeting of Ind. Christian churches, at the Main Street Christian church.

This afternoon's program was devoted to the activities of the Indiana Women's Christian Missionary society, with Mrs. J. D. Case of this city, the state president, as the presiding officer. Mrs. Case was re-elected president for the seventh successive year, at this afternoon's session.

The morning program, after the convention business was transacted, was taken up with a discussion of the Disciples' educational program, featured by an address by H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Nebr.

The Rev. Ray H. Montgomery of Martinsville was elected president and the Rev. Le Roy Sargent of Washington was chosen for vice-president. The Rev. Lynn A. Tripp of Greensfield was the convention choice for secretary-treasurer.

Five members of the board of fifteen directors of the Indiana Christian Missionary Association were re-elected for three year terms. They were R. C. Dillman, of Swazee; J. S. Hussey, of Zionsville; H. B. Purkhiser, of Mitchell; Harry Lett, of Greensburg; and John S. Zehn, of Bedford. The Rev. J. A. Long, of North Park Christian church, Indianapolis, was elected to succeed the Rev. Frank E. Davidson, resigned; and the Rev. W. E. Moore, of Marion, to succeed W. T. Barbre, of Remselser resigned.

Other members of the board are the Rev. W. H. Book, of Columbus; and Rev. O. E. Kelley, of Terre Haute, president; M. G. Long, of Laporte; U. C. Stover, of Indianapolis; H. G. Connelly, of New Albany; W. E. Carroll, of Tipton; E. W. Cole, of South Bend; and W. E. M. Hackleman, of Indianapolis.

TO BE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. H. H. Halley of Chicago, noted for his memorizing of the Bible, who has been conducting the devotional exercises at the state convention of Christian churches, in session at the Main Street Christian church, has consented to remain in Rushville over Thursday night and conduct a union prayer meeting at the Christian church.

The Rev. L. E. Brown invited Dr. Halley to remain and asked the other churches of the city to join in the union prayer service, at which Dr. Halley will speak and read some passages from the Bible from memory.

Dr. Halley's talent and his remarkable personality was not new to Rush county people, but his marvelous knowledge of the Bible and his unusual talent has been one of the chief topics of conversation among the delegates and visitors at the convention. He gives to the scriptures a meaning seldom seen in a simple recital of the Bible truths and inspires a reverence for the Bible that few speakers have ever been able to equal.

WANTS RELIGION PUT IN EDUCATION

H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Nebr.,
Tells Disciples Convention of
Greatest Task Ahead

TALKS AT MORNING SESSION

Emphasized Grave Need of Religious Departments in Educational Institutions

"The greatest task of the Disciples of Christ today is to undergird our educational institutions with the religion of Jesus Christ," stated the Rev. H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, Nebr., in a powerful address this morning on "The Church and Education," before the Indiana convention of Christian churches.

The Rev. Mr. Harmon was one of the most masterful and convincing talkers of the entire program and placed grave emphasis upon the needs of the educational institutions for religious departments and the needs of young people that they should go to religious school.

He described the physical fact that the same brain cells used for educational response are the ones that absorb the religious training.

"The men who leave the ministry invariably go into real estate, life insurance, or some line of work where their same brain cells are used, those that use the persuasive power," he said. "So it is with young people. Hand in hand with their academic work goes their religious training. At the same ages they respond to education do they respond to religion. For this reason, religion must be scientific and science must be religious. Religion can not be imposed from the outside. Nowadays children are obsessed with the idea that going to school is their main business. It formerly was not that way, but we had the advantage of going to revival and religious meetings more than the

Rushville Knights Templar Leads
With Percentage of 95.8, Announced at Fort Wayne

GRAND COMMANDERY MEETS

For the first time in its history, Rushville commandery No. 40, Knights Templar, won first place in the state inspection according to word received here today from Fort Wayne, where the annual meeting of the grand commandery is being held. A delegation of Rushville Knights headed by Judge Will M. Sparks, who will be advanced this year from grand captain general to grand generalissimo, is attending the meeting.

Rushville was ranked first with a percentage of 95.8, beating Richmond, which finished second, three-tenths of one per cent, according to the announcement made Tuesday night by the grand commander.

The biennial inspection of Rushville commandery was held December 27, 1923. In 1921 Rushville commandery finished in sixth place with a percentage of only 1.6 per cent below first place and in 1919 was ranked sixth, having been only 1.7 per cent below first place that year. Rushville commandery is preparing for a celebration over the victory when the delegation returns from the grand commandery meeting.

Indianapolis Pastor Says one of Disciples Tasks is Keeping The Fron-
tiers Open

An impressive pageant entitled "The Sale of the World's Children," and an address, "The Immediate Task of the Disciples," marked the Tuesday evening session of the Indiana convention of Christian churches, at the Main Street Christian church, which was filled to capacity. Every inch of available space was used for standing room and many people were unable to gain admission.

The Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, pastor of the Sixth Christian church of Indianapolis, made an impassioned appeal for conviction on the part of the ministers of the Disciples, to keep the frontiers open and for the recruiting of ministers so that God's work may be carried on. He spoke in place of the Rev. P. H. Welshimer of Canton, O., who was unable to fill the engagement.

The pageant, which was arranged by Miss Florence Carmichael and Miss Genevieve Harris of Indianapolis, young peoples' workers in the state department, depicted the battle that is going on among the world forces for the children. The pageant shows Christianity eventually winning out. The world forces were represented by students preparing for the work of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Smith said that he could see success ahead for the Disciples because the wing representing ten percent of the church body will "never succeed in swaying us with their radicalism," and the conservative wing, representing about an equal number, will not be able to "swamp us with their conservatism."

One of the immediate tasks of the Disciples, the speaker asserted, is "go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

"This is a commission that is so much abused and misused," he continued. "Some people construe it to mean, 'Go ye into all the world and debate the Gospel with every creature. He that is beaten and baptized shall be damned.'"

"The Immediate Task," the Rev. Mr. Smith declared, "is to turn the flood light on the teachings of Jesus"

A luncheon was held today at the First Baptist church for the elementary workers of the Sunday Schools. An interesting program was held during the service of the luncheon.

One of the most important features of young people's work during the convention was held at the First Presbyterian church last night when a program of plans for the future was given during the service of the banquet. Miss Genevieve Harris, regional superintendent of Sunday schools, was toastmistress, and the following toasts were given: "Training in Endeavor" by Miss Virginia Wood of Indianapolis and "Training in Sunday School" by Miss Louise Dingle of Newcastle. Two beautiful numbers were sung by the Connersville Intermediate choir.

The automobile trip to the graves of Knowles Shaw in East-Hill Cemetery and John B. The procession of one hundred and four automobiles left the church about four o'clock, taking practically all of the visitors and a number of local people to these historic spots.

The unusual character and career of Knowles Shaw was told in a short talk by the Rev. L. E. Brown at the memorial service held at his grave. "A diamond in the rough" was the term applied to him by the speaker, who referred to his work as a minister, singing evangelist and song writer of note. Many of his songs are being sung today. A picture of the church in Harris, Ohio founded by Evangelist Shaw of which the local minister was pastor thirty years ago was shown.

8TH GRADE PUPILS NEXT

Three Townships Will Hold Exercises
For Elementary Graduates—Ex-
amination Saturday

Carthage will graduate thirteen seniors Friday night at the auditorium in that place, and the address will be delivered by Oswald Ryan, an attorney of Anderson. This will end the commencements for the township high schools, as all of the schools are over excepting Rushville City.

In addition to the Friday night commencement there will follow three township commencements for eighth grade pupils, in Union, Jackson and Richland townships, where there is no commissioned high school.

The pupils who failed to pass the eighth grade tests in the schools, will be given another opportunity to make the grades, it was announced today, and the examination for those who failed will be held on the third floor of the court house here Saturday, beginning at eight o'clock in the morning.

It has always been the custom to give the eighth grade pupils a second chance to pass, and B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent designated Saturday as the time for the examination.

The thirteen pupils who will receive diplomas at Carthage Friday night will be: Gilbert Glover, Mary Elizabeth Gray, Charles Hahn, Marjorie Henley, Josephine Herkless, Harold Hill, Ivala Johnson, Harold Macey, Earl Moore, Raymond McDuffy, Fred Parrish, Leslie Terhune and Raymond Kennedy.

The eighth grade commencement dates for the three township schools will be May 28 at Jackson township; May 29 for Union township and June 3 for the Richland school.

The Jackson township commencement will be the first in their newly completed building, and the class roll consists of eleven students, who will be eligible to enter high school next fall. The address and program will be held at the new school May 28th at eight o'clock, and the address will be delivered by the Rev. C. F. Shaul of Arlington. Downey's orchestra will also provide the music.

The eleven students are: Gilbert Barrow, Geneva Benson, Winfred

Grand Larceny

ALSO FINED $25 AND COSTS

Howard L. Wharton, age 22, who says he lives in Indianapolis, and who has been employed here as a sign painter, was arrested last Tuesday on a charge of larceny, and admitted his guilt when arraigned this morning in police court, before Mayor Thomas.

He was fined $25 and costs, and given a 30 day penal farm sentence, and being unable to pay the fine, it means a 55 day sentence.

According to the affidavit, filed by Walter M. Pearce, he stole a set of universal wrenches from the Innis, Pearce and Company factory, where he was employed in lettering trucks. The wrenches were valued at $22, the charge said. The prisoner told the officers, after his arrest, where the tools could be located.

Farm Bureau Director

20 UNION FARMERS SIGN UP

W. H. Settle, President of State Bureau, to Address Rushville Meeting
in Interest of Drive

A campaign to sign farmers in the wheat pool got under way in Rush county Tuesday and today four outside workers were making a farm-to-farm canvass in an effort to obtain the support of Rush county farmers in the movement to sign up forty per cent of the wheat acreage of Indiana by May 24.

W. T. Martindale of Greensfield, district director of the Indiana Farm Bureau, who is directing the campaign in Rush county, announced that a meeting for farmers of the county, in the interest of the wheat pool, would be held at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The principal address will be delivered by W. H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau, who is known as a very gifted speaker.

Mr. Martindale announced that two Union township farmers signed up for the wheat pool Tuesday and the campaign was to be continued in this township today by John Ritter of Elmore, Ind., and Rene Jones of Fairmount, Ind.

Oris Little of Hancock county came today to assist Mr. Martindale in the local campaign and he was to be assigned to Center township. The canvassers are endeavoring to find a local farmer to accompany them, but they find this very difficult on account of the busy season on the farm.

Union township farmers who signed up Tuesday are as follows: J. E. Winn, D. V. Whicker, Emory Vandewater, Urban Vickery, J. W. Peters, H. M. Nash, Eddie Meyer, W. B. Morris, Otto Morris, John W. Mauzy, Charles G. Mauzy, James W. Mauzy, Fred McCrory, Thomas Logan, Walter Gray, Elbert Gordon, Chester Beaver, Jesse Brooks, Guy Bussell and Fred Hall.

Seats Him

CLYDE WALB IS RE-ELECTED

Rush County Proxy Storm Center of
Sixth District Meeting, Committee
Refusing to Accept It

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14—The Republican state committee today voted to seat George Elliott of Newcastle as chairman of the sixth district organization over Harry Haynes of Richmond.

The vote was reported to be 10 to 2 in favor of seating Elliott.

The district chairman re-elected Clyde Walb of Lagrange as state chairman and Frederick Schortemeier of Indianapolis as secretary of the state committee.

Walb, state chairman, instructed the district chairman to proceed with the selection of a chairman for the sixth district after two hours deliberation behind closed doors over the situation growing out of Tuesday's district convention at Newcastle.

Harry Haynes of Richmond was selected chairman by the convention after it had refused to accept the vote of a proxy for the Rush county chairman.

Friends of Elliott claimed the vote would have been a tie if the Rush county proxy had been permitted to vote and appealed to the state committee.

Walb held that it was an error to attempt to exclude the proxy holder from the meeting at Newcastle and declared that a tie vote had existed for twenty-four hours over the election.

Repeating the fight of two years ago, the sixth congressional district again became the battle ground, of the Indiana republican organization when county chairmen of the district met at Newcastle Tuesday afternoon to elect a district chairman.

The fight centered on the Rush county representation at the meeting and was carried to the state committee, which met this afternoon in Indianapolis to elect a state chairman.

The district committee contested the right of Charles A. Frazee to represent Glen Miller, republican county chairman, who was unexpectedly called to Shelbyville, and delegated Mr. Frazee to act for him.

The question of Mr. Frazee's right to vote for Mr. Miller was raised because his proxy was not sworn to before a notary public. The committee

FORMER RUSHVILLE COLORED MAN KILLED

Matthew Easley, 40, Struck by Bolt
of Lightning Tuesday Afternoon
at Home in Marion

BODY TO BE BROUGHT HERE

Matthew Easley, (colored) 40 years old, of Marion, Ind., and formerly of this city, was instantly killed Tuesday, afternoon by a bolt of lightning, while at work in a barn at his home in South Marion. He was the son of George Easley of this city, who with his two sons, Orville E. Easley and George Easley, Jr., have gone to that city to bring the body back to this city for burial.

The bolt, which entered at an open door, struck Easley on the head. Miss Lula May Dye, a girl who was talking to him at the time, was uninjured. The deceased was well known here, having lived here most of his life, until a few years ago he moved to Marion with his family.

The survivors are the father and two brothers of this city, one brother of Connersville, G. Easley, and four children, George, Martha, Lucile and Irene, all at home. His wife preceded him in death about a year ago. No arrangements have been made for the funeral services, awaiting the arrival of the body in this city. The body should arrive some time today and will be taken to the home of George Easley, Jr., where the funeral services will be held.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
The golden rule:—Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. Matthew 7:12.
Prayer:—Help us, our Father, to do right by thee, and then it will be natural for us to do right by our brothers.

Profit by Contact
Many more local people are attending the annual convention of the Christian churches of Indiana, it is understood, than has been the rule in the past. A large number of Rushville people and many from other parts of the county are found at every session of the convention, which is being held at the Main Street Christian church.
This shows good judgment on the part of those who are taking advantage of the opportunity to hear some of the leading ministers of the Disciples of Christ. They can undoubtedly profit by being present at as many sessions as possible and hear what the trend of thought is in religious circles.
The spirituality that prevails at a convention of this character is wholesome and has such a refining influence that it is little wonder that people are attracted by it.
Good fellowship and hospitality fairly saturates the air and makes attendance at the sessions a very great pleasure.
While we of Rush county had hoped to impress the visitors with the good qualities which we as a community possess, we must not forget that the people who are attending this convention have many good qualities and that they will "rub off" if the proper contact is established.
No one should under-estimate the good that may be derived from associating with the people who are accepting our hospitality this week. The people of this community can profit immensely if they will not only attend the convention sessions, but likewise get acquainted with those who are our guests.

Chauncey Depew, celebrating his ninetieth birthday, says he is going to take up golf when he is 100 years old, because it is "an old man's game."
This may not be exactly fair to golf, but it is characteristic of Mr. Depew. The persistent youthfulness of this elderly gentleman is a subject of perpetual interest. Few men of our time have grown old so gracefully, refusing to admit that they were old even when past the psalmist's limit for the days of a man's life. And with every recurrent birthday, the venerable New Yorker's admirers want to know again how he does it.
Mr. Depew knows better than to lay down any absolute rule for a hearty old age. He knows that, to a

Money Of No Value
"Life had no pleasures for me. Although I had plenty of money it was of no value, as my stomach almost constantly distressed me. I lost faith in all doctors and medicine. Talking with my druggist about my case he advised me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I am now enjoying life again." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, D. C.—All semblance of administration control over Congress has gone by the board.
Against the most resolute opposition of administration leaders on the floor, and in the face of a virtual demand by President Coolidge that the Mellon tax bill be enacted as written, the Senate threw out the Mellon rates on surtaxes and substituted Democratic rates proposed by Simmons of North Carolina.
On the same afternoon, the House, invoking the new rule passed under insurgent pressure at the opening of the session, discharged the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee from further consideration of an important amendment to the Transportation Act and ordered it to the floor for consideration.
Just one day later, in the Senate, administration forces which had blocked employment of Francis J. Heney to assist the Couzens committee in an investigation of the Treasury Department, particularly the revenue bureau, which collects taxes and administers prohibition, were routed and the way cleared for what may be the most sensational of all the sensational inquiries of the year.
Party lines were hopelessly scrambled in this fight, which resulted in an authorization for employment of outside counsel.
Since it was the proposal to employ outside counsel that drew a heated protest from Mellon to Coolidge and a caustic letter of criticism of the Senate from the president, this action can be construed only as the Senate's declaration of independence from White House and cabinet domination.
THE new tax bill, as put through the Senate, might properly be labeled The Mellon Bill, per Simmons.
Administration Republicans, however, from the very face with which they view the legislation, apparently regard it chiefly as Persimmons. For certainly it is a bitter dose.

Incidentally, the enactment of the latest surtax rates proposed by Senator Furnifold McLendell Simmons, A. B., LL. D., of New Bern, N.C., brings into prominence again the dean of the Democratic party in the Senate.
Simmons, who is just past 70, rounds out this session four full terms in the upper house—24 years. His runner-up for continuity of service on the Democratic side is his North Carolina colleague, Lee Slater Overman, who also has just turned 70. Overman, however, has only 22 years to his credit.
Physically, Simmons is the senatorial Elliptical. He stands barely over five feet in height. When seated, he is almost lost to sight behind his desk, and when standing he measures up in height to the average senator when seated.
But what he lacks in bodily physique, he makes up in cranial capacity. In contrast to his body, his head seems unduly large. And it houses an assortment of financial facts and figures not exceeded in the Senate unless it be those under the list of Red Snoot.
During the period of Democratic control in Congress, from 1913 to 1919, Simmons was chairman of the Senate finance committee and in charge of the formulation, in the Senate, of all war revenue measures.
INTEREST here new centers in what "Cautious Cal" will do when the tax bill, providing for surtax rates bitterly opposed by Mellon and objected to by Coolidge, reaches the White House.
If he vetoes it, there will be no tax reduction from this session of Congress; none that will apply to this year's taxes. That might be a big factor in the coming campaign.
If he signs it, it will be as a temporary bill to run until, if elected, he can propose another.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican Friday, May 14, 1909
Fred A. Capp is contemplating the purchase of a large motor car. Shelbyville Republican—Lon Mull of Manila was in the city Wednesday to see the circus. If there is a circus within a radius of one hundred miles of Manila, Mr. Mull never fails to attend.
Many from here will go on the special train to New Castle next Sunday, some to see the ball game, others to see the Hindoo Magic Rose City.
Morrie Brooks, for the past three years trainer for Theo. Abercrombie, at Rushville, has severed his connections and opened a public training stable, says the Western Horseman.
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hinchman are the proud parents of a baby boy in their home. Willie can be caught smiling at anytime now. (Plum Creek correspondent.)
Miss Jean Bishop of Rushville made her weekly trip here Wednesday to give music lessons to her many scholars. (Raleigh correspondent.)
Dr. E. I. Wooden, secretary of the City Board of Health, has received a summons from Dr. Hurty, secretary of the state board of Health, to attend the annual State Health Official school to be held in the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis on May 20 and 21. The local secretary has signified his intentions of attending.
Mr. and Mrs. George Griesser, who were recently married in Cincinnati, are moving into half of the new Banta property in North Morgan street.
The high school students were dismissed this afternoon on account of the meeting of the State High School Oratorical Association in Noblesville. Rushville will be represented by Ward Hackleman.
Mrs. Owen Kintaid and Miss Minnie Burt went to Cincinnati today to attend the May Day celebration at the Thane Miller school and will be the guest of Miss Louise Burt, a senior of the school.
A sequel to the Billy Whittla kidnapping case was promised last night, when Wilbur, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snodgrass disappeared and could not be found. The young lad was not seen after dinner and when he did not come home to supper his parents were worried about his safety and immediately instituted a search for him. All during the evening performance they looked all over the show grounds. Shortly before the show was finished the mother went home and there found her son. He said he had been home once and finding no one at home had returned to the show grounds and then back home.
Mrs. Lon Johnson of Indianapolis, accompanied by her niece, Miss Henrietta Cox of Martinsville, came this afternoon to spend a fortnight with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Lively, in East Eighth street.
Prof. and Mrs. M. R. McDaniel will go to Chicago June 1st where Mr. McDaniel will take a summer course in Chicago University.

The Hodge - Podge
By a Paragrapher with a Soul
They are hatching eggs with electricity, but nothing has been invented to lay them. So the hen still has a little left to cackle over.
Some men who try to be funny make a miserable failure of it, but if they get any fun out of it, that's all right.
People who meet themselves going north for the summer while on the way from spending the winter in the south, really haven't any right to call it home where they stop off for a change of clothes.
Congressmen who voted for tax reduction will live to vote another day.
Total abstinence is a good policy in some cases, but not when it comes to voting.
Benjamin Franklin's picture is on the new $100 bills, but we know where you can get a picture of Franklin for a lot less money.
It is said that Cato learned Greek after he was 80 years of age, but nowadays when a man reaches that age, he certainly thinks there is little more to be learned.

MOVIES
"The Near Lady" Mystic
Parental whims do not mean much to the youth of today, according to a few of the wisecracks who were educated to the rules of a generation or so ago, as is depicted in "The Near Lady", a Universal attraction starring Gladys Walton, which comes today to the Mystic theatre.
Youth today is rash, impulsive and self-centered, giving little thought to others than itself; the "honor thy father and mother" idea is a forgotten art, many old timers aver.
Whether their opinions are based on careful observance of the present generation or whether they have neglected to keep pace with the times is a matter of conjecture. At least those who voice such ideas speak freely, emphatically, as a matter of fact.
Consciously or unconsciously, the Universal Pictures Corporation, has released a film that is a strong negative answer to the expressions that the dads and mothers of today have no place in the thoughts of their children.
It is a screen version of the popular magazine story by Frank R. Adams and presents the story of a young couple who did not even like to be engaged to please their parents whose motives for wishing the marriage of their children were extremely selfish.
The picture was directed by Herbert Blache, who also directed "Miss Walton in 'The Untameable' and the 'Wild Party'."

Zev Jeered as He Falls

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York May 14—When the great fall, they usually make a great fall out of it. That venerable and ancient wheeze that the bigger they are the harder they fall goes along picking up examples as convincing as they were when it was first observed that no matter how good you are, you'll fall if you stick at it long enough.

The greats of sports fall with such reverberating thuds because, there are so many waiting to see the crash and there are so many voices ready to shout in glee: "There he goes! He always was a bum!"

Pete Whosis, an obscure rookie, can strike out with the winning run on third base without having it bulletined to the far corners, but let Babe Ruth fail to deliver in a pinch and it is preserved for the next generation.

The same spirit that prompted the baseball fan to shout: "Yuh big bum" when the Babe fanned with the bases filled in the ninth inning of the last world's series game and the same fickleness that inspired the Dempsey rooters to roar: "Look at 'im going"

when big Firpo had him almost out last summer, exists around the big tracks where equine kings are treated to the same razberries.

Zev, Harry Sinclair's champion money-winner, was the hero of the track last year. He carried the flag in the international race against the British champion, Papyrus, and when he won he was acclaimed a national hero.

He was still a hero and the toast and boast of the track when he paraded down the Jamaica track for the Pomona Handicap, the first important race of the metropolitan season. His backers couldn't get a bet down on him because he was such a tremendous favorite. It was the boast of the Zev fans that the animal didn't walk on hoofs that could beat him in a sprint.

It was but a matter of a few seconds after the tape had sprung that it was shown that the animal did live that could beat him in a sprint. Seventy yards from the star Zev found a three year old, St. James, at his shoulder and the three year old kept going. Zev not only was beaten but he was humiliated. His kingdom crashed at his feet and he heard the ovation given to a new king. He had been dethroned and another was in his place.

WORLD BATTLE

Christ and to take up the seeds of truth dropped at the very gates of heaven and plant them in the hearts of men.

"We need men in the ministry with conviction. I don't believe in the old school emotion, the death-bed scene and altar-confession emotion. I mean the emotion that thrills a young man to act—the kind of emotion that stirs a man to dash into a burning home and save the life of a child."

The speaker asserted that there were thousands outside the church of God because they thought those in church did not care.

"The man who walks with God is always in pain seeing the man who walks outside of God," he stated. "We need to put the passion of conviction in the hearts of our ministers so that they will go out and win souls."

The second immediate task he outlined was keeping the frontiers open—extend the work of the church, and in doing this, he said, the Disciples need a "body sense."

"Segregate us," Mr. Smith said, "and we are left a piece of fossilized junk. Put us together and you have, not a machine, but a body, because a body has a heart. We need a body sense because when one part is hurt, another part is pained."

"The thing that has kept us alive and together is that we have always had a frontier—we have always had churches to organize. I love the spirit of the pioneer, who has worked on the American frontier as well as the foreign frontier."

The pastor emphasized the need of new ministers, calling attention to the fact that many men were not in the ministry because they thought it was a "she" job, a sort of a "mother's apron string."

"Never were men so willing to accept the Christ," he continued. "The ministry is a job for red-blooded men to go out and win them."

He asserted that the church that had never sent out a minister didn't deserve any.

Miss Carmichael explained the purpose of the pageant and publicly thanked the students who gave their time and paid their own expenses to Rushville in order to take part in it. She also expressed appreciation for the assistance of local workers—Miss Wanda Wyatt, Miss Flint, Mrs. Overdorf and Miss Florine Gronier, who trained the Rushville children appearing in the pageant, representing the children of the world who were put on the auction block.

The first bidder for the children of the world was pleasure. She presented her claims for them and just as they were about to be "knocked off" to her, Vanity Fair made her offer. Each succeeding one of the world's forces made a strong bid—Child Labor, Ambition, Free Thinker, Riches, Graft, Crime, Alcohol, Law and finally Christianity, though not notified of the sale, appeared and made her bid. Opposing forces, headed by Alcohol, endeavored to sway the auctioneer, but Doctor, Nurse, School Teacher, Student, Business Man and Labor went to the side of Christianity, and she

FUNERAL FRIDAY MORNING

Mrs. Mary Martin, wife of James Martin, died Tuesday afternoon about 2:15 o'clock, at the family home, 340 West Third Street, death resulting from a complication of diseases of which she had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Martin was born in this county, and had lived here all of her life, and was 75 years of age. The greatest portion of her life was spent on a farm in Richland township, but they had moved to this city about five years ago for residence.

Besides the husband, she is survived by a step-son, Edgar Martin of south of Rushville and a brother, L. D. Lefforge of Greenfield.

Funeral services for the deceased will be held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the late residence in charge of the Rev. H. W. Hargett, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Vital Facts For Women

Sooner or later almost every woman is brought face to face with the fact that she is a victim of some weakness or ailment peculiar to her sex. It may be the young woman suffering from pain or irregularities, a mother who has brought on some weakness or displacement from overwork, or the middle aged woman passing through the most critical period of her life. For each of these trying periods Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved the greatest boon ever given to women, and there are women living in every town and city in the country who testify to its value.

All Roads Lead to The Big Sale At

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Friday afternoon in the assembly room of the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Trusty, Miss Lavina Rolling and Miss Ruby Mapp of Arcadia, Ind., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Overdorf of North Harrison street this week.

The Sorosis Club of Glenwood was charmingly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Dickey near Fairview. A majority of the members were present and responded to the roll call with current events. An interesting paper on "Cuba" was given by Mrs. Hugh Dickey, which was followed by a very interesting and vivid talk by Mrs. Jacob Gross, a guest of the club, on her recent trip to Havana, Cuba. The club members were very much delighted with the talk. The program closed with a paper on "The Sugar Industry," by Miss Meriam Fry. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served and music enjoyed. Other guests of the club were Mrs. Homer Powell of Bentonville and Mrs. James Dickey.

A very pretty and impressive wedding ceremony took place at the St. Mary's Catholic church, when Miss Mary Ellen Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Carroll, became the bride of William Michaels, of Connersville. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with bouquets of spring flowers.

At the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the church, composing the party were Miss Helen Carroll, cousin of the bride, and Ray Michaels, brother of the bridegroom, who were the attendants, and then the bride entered on the arm of the bridegroom. The bride looked lovely in a dark blue tailored suit with accessories to match. She wore a beautiful corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The bride's attendant also wore a dark blue suit and a corsage of sweet peas. During the ceremony, John Michaels, a brother of the bridegroom, sang "Ave Maria."

Immediately following the services at the church, a four course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, in West First street. The appointments for the breakfast table were carried out in pink and white and covers were laid for immediate family and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W.

E. Carroll and children Betty and Robert of Plymouth, Ind., Miss Helen Black, of Greencastle, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michaels, Ethel Michaels, John Michaels, Ray Michaels, Miss Mary Geerin, Ben Hemen, Mr. and Mrs. Will McQuiston, Miss Weldele, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Doll, Mrs. John Kubler, Mrs. Augusta Simms, Mrs. Lorena McKenna, and Mary Margaret McKenna, all of Connersville.

The bridal couple left following the breakfast on a wedding trip after which they will be at home to their friends, in their newly furnished home in Connersville. The bride is a popular young lady of this city, having been employed in the ladies ready-to-wear department of the Maury Company store for a number of years. Mr. Michaels is an accountant of Connersville.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS CONVENE AT ATLANTA

Atlanta, Ga., May 14—Approximately 7,500 delegates representing 17 southern states and the District of Columbia, today began the first session of the annual Southern Baptist Convention.

The convention, which is expected to last through next Saturday, bids fair to be one of the most important in the history of the Southern Baptist Church.

Aside from the election of a president made necessary by the resignation of Dr. E. Y. Mullins, of Louisville, Ky., now completing his third year in that capacity, many matters of importance will come up. Among them are:

- 1—Completion during 1924 of the $75,000,000 campaign for missions. The campaign which was started with the idea of gaining the goal in five years, has only until Dec. 31 to run. A balance of $26,500,000 is needed.
- 2—Authorization of a new forward program to be started as soon as the present fund is raised.
- 3—Closer correlation of agencies of the convention by reorganization of some of the boards.
- 4—Proposal to again take over the George Washington University in Washington for operation as a Baptist institution.
- 5—Proposal to take over the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas, as property of the convention.

CONVENTION NOTES

The Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Brock and son, William, of Newcastle are here, the Rev. Mr. Brock leading the singing with such success as to make the entire church ring. The Rev. Mr. Brock and his wife are singing evangelists and song writers. He has recently given up that line of work to become district evangelist of the eastern district to take the place of the Rev. Mr. Shultz who resigned.

The Rev. Aubrey H. Moore of Noblesville, here for the convention has just closed a series of meetings in Brownsburg at which 120 additions were made to the church in two weeks time.

Hilton U. Brown, publisher of the Indianapolis News, is among the prominent visitors here for the convention.

"So many people ask me if I know the whole Bible," stated H. H. Halley in his devotional service this morning, during which he gave a collection of scriptural readings on "What Jesus Said about Himself." "No, I do not know all of the Bible, but I know enough to give what I consider the main themes of the Bible. In answer to another question, I use the American Standard Revised Bible and have taken the liberty to use the modern forms of speech instead of 'thee' and 'thou.' I am asked too of what church I am a minister. I am minister of none and don't do one thing but go around and recite the Bible to people who have the patience to listen to me."

The Rev. Allan B. Philpott of the Central Christian church of Indianapolis was one of the prominent figures at the convention today.

Thirty years service is the record of Mrs. W. O. Darnall, state treasurer of the C. W. B. M. "When I took over the books of the treasurer thirty years ago," stated Mrs. Darnall, "the income was $700 a year and now it is $9,000."

This marks the ninth year of service for Mrs. J. D. Case of this city in being elected state president for the seventh successive year of the C. W. B. M. Previous to that she served as vice-president and assistant secretary. She is one of the society's most capable and prominent workers.

Rushville has the distinction of having organized the first Young Women's Missionary Circle in the state. It is one of the most active organizations of the local church.

Mrs. E. W. Taylor of South Bend, recording secretary of the C. W. B. M., and Mrs. F. R. Liddell of Laporte, secretary of the Circles and Triangles, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Case during the convention.

Miss Mary Voorhees of Franklin is accompanying the singing at the piano and certainly makes the keys "talk."

The Rev. W. E. Moore of Marion presided over the convention this morning. The Rev. John McD. Horn elected presiding officer, left for his home in Lebanon this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Williams, Miss Ethel Bradford, Mrs. Charles Canady, Mrs. Will Corsant, Miss Marcia Barton, Mrs. Oscar Miller, Mrs. Fred Kragle, Mrs. Nannie Shoemaker, Miss Emma Barton, Miss Alma Knott, Dr. O. L. Hull Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Canady of Anderson were the guests of Mrs. L. E. Brown today while attending the convention.

Convention Elects and Picks Marion For the 1925 Meeting

presentative on the nominating committee of the next national denominational convention, at Cleveland, the Rev. Mr. Carroll, and as its representatives on the resolutions committee of that convention Mrs. L. E. Brown, of Rushville; the Rev. Mr. Connelly, New Albany; Dr. A. B. Philpott, Indianapolis; Miss Margaret Winsor, of Muncie; the Rev. Mr. Cole, South Bend; and J. B. Leonard, Crawfordsville. The convention president was authorized to appoint alternates to represent the state in case of necessity.

At the session of the Indiana Women's Christian Missionary Society, officers for the coming year, in addition to Mrs. Case, were elected as follows:

Mrs. J. B. Pearsey, Indianapolis, vice president; Mrs. W. O. Darnall, Lebanon, treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Taylor, South Bend, recording secretary; Mrs. Lila B. Harrington, Lebanon, superintendent boys' and girls' work; Mrs. F. E. Liddell, Laporte, superintendent of girls' circle work; and Mrs. O. H. Griest, Winchester, general secretary.

Reports were made on the work of the Indiana Women's Society and on the progress of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary this year of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, which was the first organization for foreign missionary work established by the denomination. From its founding in 1874 until three years ago when the organization became a part of the United Christian Missionary Society, of St. Louis, its offices were in Indianapolis. The college of Missions was established by this organization.

As a part of the anniversary celebration the board hopes to raise in the denomination $1,000,000 for the construction of buildings needed in missionary work at home and abroad. Indiana's share of the financial goal is $100,000, of which about $60,000 already has been pledged and $21,000 paid. The climax of the celebration will come at the national convention of the denomination in Cleveland, in October, which will be known as the golden jubilee convention.

Plans of the board to increase its congregational organizations in the state by 100, its membership by 6,000, subscriptions to World Call, the denomination's missionary magazine, by 5,000 and its resources by $100,000 in recognition of the anniversary were discussed this afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Pearsey and Mrs. Ellie K. Payne of Indianapolis; Mrs. J. R. Coar of Ft. Wayne; Mrs. J. M. Stearns, of St. Louis; Harley T. Campbell, of Muncie; and W. S. Lockhart, of Huntington. Mrs. J. D. Case, of Rushville, will entertain women attending the convention at a golden jubilee tea at the close of the afternoon session. Women's missionary work will be considered further this evening in addresses by Miss Daisy June Trout and Stephen J. Corey, both of St. Louis, officials of the United Christian Missionary Society.

Persons interested in the annual summer assembly of the denomination at Bethany Park will attend a luncheon this evening. Charles M. Martz, of Tipton, president of the assembly, planned for coming summer, will preside.

Greetings were read in a telegram from the New York state convention being held at this time and an answer was sent to them.

Dr. Robert J. Alecy, president Butler College, announced to convention in forenoon the appointment of Dr. Frederick Kershner, Des Moines, as dean of the college of religion of Butler, and said a campaign would be made among congregations of the Disciples of Christ in the state to raise about $200,000 for the construction of a building on the Fairview site in which the new department could be housed. J. W. Atherton financial secretary Butler College, and Hilton U. Brown, president of the board of directors, also spoke on the plans of the college. He emphasized the fact that the college of religion should be made one of the objects of loyal support of denomination in the state, just as business men of Indianapolis were giving their support to the proposed department of commerce in the greater Butler.

"The officials of Butler College want it to become the outstanding educational institution supported by the Disciples of Christ in the United States," Dr. Alecy said. "The department of religion should become the central training school for preachers for the entire denomination."

Leaders of denomination in state here appear to be pleased with the appointment of Dr. Kershner as dean of the department of religion. "The College couldn't have done better under any circumstances," the Rev. C. W. Canby, secretary of the State Missionary Association, said.

"It is a most fortunate selection," the Rev. Mr. Kelley said. "The college is to be congratulated on getting Dr. Kershner," Dr. Philpott said. "He is a man of modern learning but conservative. He not only is trained in the Scriptures but is a generally literary scholar. He is humble. He is a winning speaker."

The work of other higher educational institutions of denomination in state was discussed by J. O. Rose, of Angola; and a group of students from Indiana University. The work of the School of Religion at Bloomington, of which Dr. Joseph C. Todd is dean, was explained by Miss Evelyn Wilkinson, Miss Vera Woods, Russell Siferd, William Treadway, and all students, and Mrs. Todd.

J. O. Rose, who has the Bible Chair at Angola College, gave a report on "The Bible Chair at Angola," stating that "our church must thrive according to the attention given to the religious education of our young people. Our future ministry depends upon it." He dwelt upon the amazing ignorance of the average college student in Bible facts, giving statistics to prove his points. "What they need is systematic teaching of the fundamentals of the Bible and not philosophy to start on. During my experience in teaching students from 34 states and 22 countries, I can not recall 6 of them that had systematic Bible teaching."

He also stated that there have been 200 ministers go out from this school and there are 700 students now enrolled, so the opportunity in the college is enormous.

J. C. Todd head of the college of religious education at Indiana university, was the next speaker and said "Sixteen times have I come to you and made speeches and this time I am going to surprise you and let some one else do the talking. He introduced four students of the college, who spoke on phases of the work, and Mrs. Todd. After their talks they sang one of the college songs. Mr. Todd has been head of the college of religion for ten years.

Miss Evelyn Wilson of Indiana university gave a short talk on the courses in the religious college there, saying the purpose of it all was to give the students an opportunity to express their religion.

William Treadway discussed the "Chapel" and told how it was the most popular phase of church life in the school. He stated that the founders of the state seemed to think that religion and education should be separated and the purpose of the school of religion was to fill the vacancy left there by the church.

Miss Woods, president of the Student Christian Union, stated the purpose of the organization was to put a positive moral spirit on the campus and an interest in religion. She named a number of religious movements the students were interested in, among them, the "Pocket Testament League," the joiners of which agreed to read at least one chapter of the Bible every day and carry a testament with them.

Russell Seford spoke on the possibilities of the religious school, stating there were more students of every denomination at the state school than there are at the denominational schools and a great opportunity is there. In closing he asked, "They say you get out of a thing what you put into it. What have you put into the colleges in a religious way?"

Mrs. Todd spoke of the great opportunity for the home and the increasing knowledge of its influence.

WANTS RELIGION PUT IN EDUCATION

children do now. Now by the time children get through with the modern school program there is no time for anything else. If we do not put religious training into the curriculum of our schools, it is going to be crowded out of the souls of our children.

"In my mind the two things responsible for the success of the Disciples of Christ are the plea for the unity of the church on the basis of the New Testament, and that great statesman of Israel, Alexander Campbell. Our future depends upon our leadership and this depends upon our colleges. Time was when ministers came from the plough, the anvil, or the carpenter shop. They had the sacrificial spirit of our fathers. To be successful now, however, the pulpit has to be as well educated and equipped as the pew. I do not plead for a highbrow ministry but our ministers must be trained for their task. There are more students of our denomination today in the state universities than in our own colleges. Much of our leadership is there for training. And why not, our doctors, engineers are trained there and until Christ rules in the markets of the world He will not rule the world.

"More than this there must be co-

GEORGE ELLIOTT NAMED CHAIRMAN

fee met at one o'clock, and when the question came up, adjourned until 2:30 to give Mr. Frazee opportunity to have the document sworn to.

Russell Tiltworth, secretary of the Rush county committee, who made out the proxy and witnessed the signature, hurried to Newcastle and had it acknowledged before a notary public, but this did not satisfy the committee and it was thrown out, resulting in the election of Harry J. Haynes of Richmond as Goodrich-Bossert man, as district chairman, and the defeat of George A. Elliott, editor of the Newcastle Courier, and a candidate for re-election.

The committee to which the contest was referred consisted of Judge Himelek of Connersville, Judge Tague of Brookville and Judge Hinchshaw of Newcastle. The committee was two to one in favor of the Goodrich organization. Judge Hinchshaw being the only man on the special committee favorable to the Watson group.

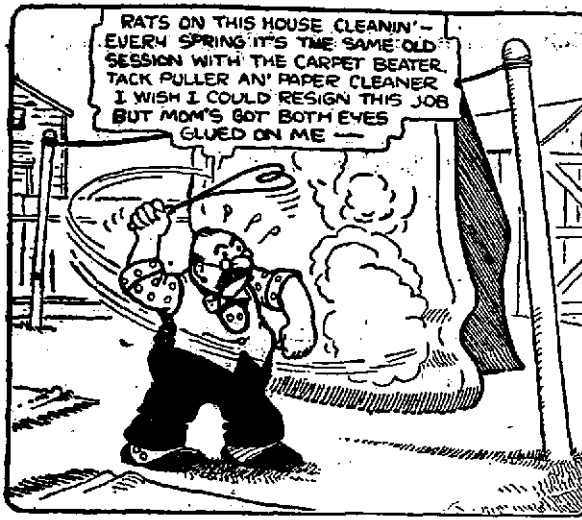

Mr. Frazee and Mr. Miller went to Indianapolis this morning to carry a fight to the state committee, holding that the district committee defrauded Rush county out of representation in the election of a district chairman, on account of the intense desire of the anti-Watson forces to gain control of the state committee.

Haynes was elected by a vote of 4 to 3, the same as prevailed when Frazee was rejected. It was said that the chairmen of Wayne, Fayette, Union and Franklin counties supported Haynes, while Henry Hancock and Shelby voted for Elliott.

Mrs. Helen K. French of Newcastle and Mrs. Bertha VanCamp of Brookville were named vice chairmen; Luther O. Draper, Henry county chairman, was elected secretary and Dr. W. C. Squires of Richmond was named treasurer.

Republican leaders from over the district were in Newcastle for the meeting and D. C. Stephenson and Bossert took an active part in lining up the county chairmen for the two candidates. Stephenson is said to favor the re-election of Wall as state chairman. Bossert and Stephenson got into an argument over Klan affairs during a conference before the district meeting convened. Witnesses said hot words passed between the two and each took a couple of swings at the other before friends intervened. No damage resulted, but the near fight was the sensation of the meeting.

Stephenson is generally credited with keeping Otto Lee, the Shelby county chairman in line for Elliott, while Bossert and the Wayne county delegation swung Will Osborne of Franklin county, generally credited with being a supporter of Elliott, over to Haynes.

Haynes is a retired banker of Richmond and is ex-president of the Union National bank.

13 SENIORS WILL GRADUATE FRIDAY

written by Knowles Shaw, and followed by a prayer by the Rev. Homer Hufferd who formerly preached at Big Flatrock and knew the evangelist. The Rev. Mr. Brown then introduced George Thomas of this city, saying "This is the son of the man who baptized Knowles Shaw." Another of his songs, "The Handwriting on the Wall" was then sung by a quartette composed of Mr. and

Mrs. Virgil Brock of Newcastle, singing evangelists, Miss Sells and Mr. Clark, all of whom are visitors at the convention. Little William Brock, the four year old son of the evangelists, then placed a beautiful wreath on the tombstone of the pioneer preacher.

At the Little Flatrock church, the service was in charge of the Rev. W. R. Cady, minister of this historic little church. The several hundred visitors sang a few hymns led by J. F. Howe, singing evangelist, prayer was offered by the Rev. T. E. Cox, one of the oldest evangelists of the Disciples in point of service, in the state. The Rev. Gas Thompson of Buckeye, Indiana, a great nephew of Elder John P. Thompson, who organized the Little Flatrock church nearly 100 years ago, gave an interesting number of facts concerning his noted ancestor.

The Rev. J. N. Jessen, minister of the Christian church of Lafayette, referred in a most pleasing way to

How to Refinish Your Old Furniture

Perhaps you do not know how easy it is to transform your old furniture into the new up to date enamel styles.

This may be done very easily with little effort by following the proper methods and this free booklet gives complete instructions for decorating and refurbishing all old pieces of furniture.

The most popular and beautiful finish is obtained in the rubbed enamel effects in the various colors. Kyanize Celoid Finish gives this finish perfectly. It is described in this booklet and it also tells you how to get the new floral transfer design to put on your enameled furniture.

By using these transfers you can obtain some beautiful results.

WILL ROGERS GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT

Well Known Man Says Medicine
"Rang Down Curtain" on Stomach Troubles

"Tanlac rang down the curtain on my troubles and brought me as good health as a man could ask for," is the characteristic statement of Will Rogers, 1708 Wisconsin St., Peoria, Ill., a stationary engineer at a popular Peoria theatre.

"Before taking Tanlac, so many ailments piled up on me it looked like 'good-night' to my old-time robust health. Stomach trouble, a lagging appetite, weakness, nervousness, dizziness, coated tongue, sleeplessness, and backache were causing me no end of suffering. Every bone in my body ached and I was right on the verge of a collapse.

"Tanlac took every ache and pain out of my system and gave me a thorough overhauling. I now have an appetite like a cowpuncher's, perfect digestion, and am 10 pounds heavier. In fact, I am eating, sleeping and feeling fine and have a world of new energy. Tanlac is every bit as good as they say it is."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40-million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Lady Says She Suffered from a Burning Sensation, Headache, Dizziness, Until She Took Black-Draught.

Signal, Miss.—"For a year or longer I had indigestion, and had it bad," says Mrs. E. S. Holman, of this place. "Everything I ate hurt me. I would have burning in my stomach and smothering spells, and after meals feel right dizzy. My head would begin to ache, and I would want to lie down, but felt I couldn't for I would smother."

"Unless one has had such trouble, they don't know what it is. I was talking to a neighbor one day and told her how I had been affected. She told me it was indigestion and to try Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few large doses and then a pinch after meals, and for fully four months now I haven't had indigestion. I eat whatever I please and when I please, but keep up the Black-Draught—just an occasional dose."

When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, try the suggestion above. Thousands of people have found that Black-Draught promotes relief in indigestion by stimulating the liver and stomach to perform their normal functions.

Insist on Theford's, the only genuine. Sold everywhere. NC-152
